Hello!

I'm Leela. I'm so glad you're here!

I delight couples and their wedding guests with my warm, nostalgic, and inclusive illustration style.

I paint live on your wedding day - or afterwards, creating you illustrated keepsakes for you and your loved ones to treasure.

Live illustration – how it works

1. I arrive early at your venue and set up before your guests' arrival.
2. As the first guests arrive, I ask them to pose for a quick reference photo - nothing formal, just natural and relaxed.
3. The painting begins! As illustrations start to appear, your curious guests will start to come over, where I can continue to take their photos.
4. Throughout the day I build a little pop-up gallery, creating a beautiful talking point.
5. Depending on your chosen package, guests take their illustrations on the day as favours, or they can be gathered up and delivered to you afterwards to send as thank-you gifts.

Gift our Guests

Live Illustration plus studio time to ensure nobody misses out .

If you have more than 50 guests, and want to make sure that every single one of them has the opportunity to receive an illustration, Gift Our Guests includes studio time after your wedding day, where I complete anyone who didn't get painted on the day.

A little more laid back in vibe, while still including 7 hours of live illustration to delight your guests on your wedding day.

You rest easy knowing that even if a few of your guests are slower off the mark to pose for their photo, they won't be left out.

Perfect for larger guest lists, this works especially well to include older family members as well as guests with small children, where grabbing a reference photo can take a little more coaxing!

Includes personalised backing cards to complement your wedding theme.

From £1200 (based on 60 guests)

Includes travel of up to 40 miles return from my studio, with additional mileage at 45p/mile.
